

West Burlington Independent School District apologizes to Chloe for our insensitive approach to dealing with her hair loss. It was an error of judgement on our part and we regret making this mistake. The school district has taken action to make sure this doesn't happen again. We hope Chloe will accept our apology and be able to move forward.